

This week the Women's Hearth shifts to increased hours of operation. We are now open Sunday through Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Our services are limited to maintain the health and safety of our program participants and staff.

During our open hours, housing support specialists are available to work with women to help resolve homelessness and other housing stability issues.

Hygiene products and other necessities are available through our "side-walk outreach" services. Showers are also available by appointment; sign up begins at 8:45 a.m. each morning.

We will be hosting a 2nd Harvest Mobile Food bank on August 17th from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.

If you have any questions or need further details, please don't hesitate to call the Women's Hearth at 509.455.4249.

Responsible Renter:

Responsible Renter classes are being scheduled monthly. Please check for details at www.help4women.org/responsible-renters. Registration is now required and space is limited to maintain safety.

Our August Responsible Renter Class offerings will be on Thursday, August 13th from 9:00am – 2:30pm and again on Thursday, August 20th from 9:00am – 2:30pm at The Women's Hearth, 920 w 2nd ave. All three sections of the curriculum will be taught on each day. Please have participants arrive by 8:45am. Participants will need to pre-register for the class and there is a class size limit of 6 people. These classes will be for people identifying as women only, however this may change for the future classes.
